Capt. Dean White
Post 1st Vice Commander

Our Post 1st Vice Commander, Capt. Dean White

Dean White enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1988 and completed basic training and AIT at Ft. Benning, Georgia. He spent his four years with the 24th Infantry Division as an Infantry Soldier at Ft. Stewart, Georgia. He stated, "I spent some great times there and many, many weekends with my buddies living it up in Savannah". In August of 1990 he were deployed to Saudi Arabia for Desert Shield and spent many months living in the desert without heat or AC. His first mail came three months after he arrived. The next year his Division played a significant role in Desert Storm. He completed his mission and came home in April of 1991 and ETS'ed in 1992 and became a civilian again.

By 1999 he had missed the Army and decided to re-enlist. He signed up for OCS with the Connecticut Army National Guard, completing the program and was commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in July of 2000. He stated, "I elected to branch Infantry because I had apparently not had enough punishment yet", completing the Infantry Officer Basic Course at Ft. Benning Georgia in 2001.

Between 1992 and 1999 Dean married his wife Kathy and had their daughter, Jessica. He stated, "When I went to Ft. Benning for the 5 month Infantry Course, I thought that was the longest we would ever be away from each other". He had no idea what was about to happen and the sacrifice we all would be facing.

After 9/11, he completed two stateside Noble Eagle tours (2001-2003), one deployment to Iraq (2005-2006) as a MiTT Team Leader and the senior advisor to an Iraqi Infantry Battalion, and one tour to East Africa (2009–2010).

Dean is a graduate of Army Airborne School and Army Mountain Warfare School (Summer/Winter) and recipient of the Purple Heart (OIF) and Combat Infantry Badge. He is currently a Captain and Operations Officer with 2/417th Regt. in Waterbury, CT.
